HIGHEST STANDARDS

To-night you leave this harbor of learning
    An unknown sea to sail,
But other harbors await you
    Along a well known trail.
Aim for the "Highest Standards"
    Where the beauties of coral hue
And the living fields of brilliant green
    Await and welcome you.

Enter each harbor of learning
    Determined to "do" and "win";
May your colors be ever cheery
    Throughout life's glamorous din;
And when you will have anchored,
    May it be in the goal you sought
With the joy and beauties about you
    That your "Highest Standards" have brought.

Maud M. O'Brien
