WHEN PAYING IN PERSON, PLEASE BRING THE BILL STUB AND PAYMENT CARD.
WHEN PAYING BY MAIL, PLEASE ENCLOSE THE PAYMENT CARD ONLY.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

If an error or omission has been made by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company in connection with your listing in this Directory (whether or not you have paid an additional charge for such listing) you may be eligible to receive a credit allowance per the following rules and regulation. If you have any questions please contact the nearest "Pacific Telephone" business office. If you thereafter believe you need further information contact the California Public Utilities Commission in San Francisco or Los Angeles.

Credit allowance for errors or omissions in directories:

The Company shall allow credit for errors or omissions in listings of its subscribers in the alphabetical and classified telephone directories in accordance with the following:

1. Listing furnished without additional charge: In amount not in excess of the charge for the exchange service (excluding the charges for messages in excess of those included in the minimum monthly rate) during the effective life of the directory in which the error or omission is made.
2. Listing furnished at additional charge in the alphabetical telephone directory: In amount not in excess of the charge for that listing during the effective life of the directory in which the error or omission is made.
3. Listing furnished at additional charge in the classified telephone directory: In accordance with the provisions of Schedule Cal. P.U.C. No. 39-T, Classified Telephone Directory Advertising—Northern California, and Schedule Cal. P.U.C. No. 40-T, Classified Telephone Directory Advertising—Southern California, as follows: "In case of the omission of a part of or other error in an advertisement, the extent of the Company's credit allowance shall be a pro rata abatement of the charge in such a degree as the error or omission shall affect the entire advertisement which may amount to abatement of the entire charge and in case of the omission of an entire advertisement, the extent of the Company's credit allowance shall be an abatement of the entire charge".

The subscriber assumes full responsibility concerning the right to use any name as a directory listing and agrees to hold the Company free and harmless of and from any claims, loss, damage, or liability which may result from the use of such listing. The Company does not undertake to determine the legal, contractual, or other right to the use of a name to be listed in a telephone directory of the Company.

Credit allowance for errors or omissions in information records:

The Company shall allow credit for errors or omissions in listings of its subscribers in information records in accordance with the following:

1. Listing furnished without additional charge: In amount not in excess of the charge for the exchange service (excluding the charges for messages in excess of those included in the minimum monthly rates) for the period during which the error or omission continues.
2. Listing furnished at additional charge: In amount not in excess of the charge for that listing for the period during which the error or omission continues.
