TO THOSE INSURING!

Be sure to call at our office before insuring, and compare our rates and everything pertaining to the character and management of our company with other companies. By so doing, we are confident you will be convinced to your own benefit, that our rates are lower and that our company is conducted upon a more equitable plan than the majority of others, and is secondary to none. Five minutes' personal conversation will more readily and thoroughly convey information than pages of printed matter.
