

NAPA LADIES' SEMINARY.

Boarding and Day School for Young Ladies,
NAPA CITY, CALIFORNIA.

This institution entered upon its fifth school year with the present session, which opened July 17th, 1866, and will continue for five months and a half, or twenty-two weeks.

The ensuing Term will commence January 2d, 1867.

The location of this Seminary is delightful, it being situated in Napa, noted as one of the most healthy, accessible and beautiful towns in the State.

The new and commodious buildings fitted up expressly for school purposes, offer superior accommodations for boarding, as well as day pupils.

No efforts are spared by those in charge of the school, to make it an institution of learning, that may fully meet the demands of a discriminating public.

The course of study is the same as that pursued in the best Seminaries in the East, comprehending the useful and ornamental branches of a complete female education.

Special attention given to the Musical Department.

Pupils can enter during the term, and be charged from the time of entrance.
