

D. STUART'S

BOOT AND SHOE STORE,

Broadway, between Eighth and Ninth sts., Oakland,

Is the pioneer establishment of its kind in Oakland. Established in 1857. It has grown with the growth of our prosperous city, which shows that the increase in prosperity has not been slow; and we expect to keep fully up with the demands of our rapidly increasing population.

We have constantly on hand a full assortment of Eastern made

BOOTS AND SHOES.

Also, manufactured to order and for our own trade, a superior article of Ladies' and Children's Fashionable Balmorals and Gaiters.

Constantly on hand, the CIRAGE FRANCAIS, or French Dressing for Ladies' and Children's Shoes—something that will not rub off and soil the clothing.

Chilion Beach,
