

STATE UNIVERSITY SCHOOL.

This Institution is conducted in the premises, for the last fourteen years occupied by the

OAKLAND COLLEGE SCHOOL

This School is conducted with the special object of preparing students for admission to the

STATE UNIVERSITY.

Ample provision has also been made for those who do not design entering the University, to acquire such an education as shall prepare them well for business life, or to lay a good foundation for professional studies.

The students from abroad board in the institution with the teachers. The School year is divided into two terms of twenty-one weeks each; commencing, 1st, on 14th of January; and, 2d, on 22d July. For further particulars, address

F. M. CAMPBELL, Principal,
Or, GEORGE TAIT, Oakland.
