Second Presbyterian.

A society has been recently organized for the purpose of erecting a new house of worship for the convenience of members residing at a considerable distance from the present church location.

The following officers have been elected: D. A. Brown, Elder ; Thomas A. Simpson, James Hutchinson and J. M. Selfridge, Trustees.

Independent Presbyterian.

Location, southeast corner of Jefferson and Twelfth streets. Rev. L. Hamilton, Pastor ; residence, west side of Jackson near Twelfth street.

This church was organized February 28th, 1869, and is the only one of a similar character in California. The pastor of this congregation officiated for several years as pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in this city, but for opinions expressed by him he was tried before the Presbytery, and subsequently before the Synod, resulting in his being deposed by those bodies February 24th, 1869. A large portion of Mr. Hamilton's congregation, who were opposed to this decision of the Presbytery and Synod, determined upon organizing another society, and secured Brayton Hall as a temporary place of worship, where services were held until the spring of 1870, when the edifice now occupied by the congregation was erected at a cost, including lot, of about $22,500. Number of communicants June, 1872, about sixty-five.

The Sunday School connected with the church was organized March 6th, 1869. It has an attendance of one hundred and thirty-seven teachers and scholars, and a library of five hundred volumes. Meets at half-past twelve o'clock P. M. Superintendent, Rev. L. Hamilton.

Church Officers—Rev. Henry Durant and Rev. David McClure.

Trustees of Society—Rev. Henry Durant, George C. Potter, N. W. Spaulding, John R. Glascock, J. S. Emery, Hiram Tubbs, Rev. David McClure, Charles Webb Howard and J. Preston Moore.

German Presbyterian.

Rev. William Buehren, Pastor ; residence, south side of Eighth street between Jackson and Madison.

Services are held every Sunday, at eleven o'clock A. M., in the Odd Fellows' Hall, northwest corner of Franklin and Eleventh streets. Usual attendance from twenty-five to forty. It is the intention of the congregation, when regularly organized, to purchase a lot and erect a church edifice.

Church of the Immaculate Conception, (Roman Catholic.)

Location, west side of Jefferson street between Seventh and Eighth. Rev. Michael King, Pastor ; Rev. Fathers Cerda and Cleary, Assistants. Pastoral residence adjoining the church.
