

Following are items of current expenditures for 1875:

Police Department.....	$17,361 68
Fire Department.....	13,617 17
Repairs and sprinkling streets.....	6,903 65
Lighting streets and City Hall.....	21,812 17
Miscellaneous (salaries city officers, etc.).....	24,883 91

Total ..... $84,578 58

The expenses of the public schools during the year were.....	$108,429,27
An engine house and hydrants were constructed at a cost of.....	14,680 20
The construction of the lake sewer absorbed the proceeds of sale of bonds as per above statement.....	158,734 37

The city has paid all accruing interest on bonds and holds a handsome surplus in the treasury.

Bonded Debt.

The following table shows all particulars concerning the bonded debt of the city:

Date.	Amount.	Pay-able.	Rate Int.	Amount of Interest Charged.	For what purposes.
1858	$18,400	1878	7	$ 128 80	..... Old Claims
1868	50,000	1883	10	5,000 00	Erection of city Hall
1868	16,000	1883	10	600 00	Carpentier judgm't
1870	70,000	1890	10	7,000 00	..... Floating Debt
1872	50,000	1892	8	4,000 00	... School Buildings
1872	80,000	1903	8	6,500 00	Municipal Purposes
1874	15,000	1903	10	1,500 00	... Dredging the Bar
1874	100,000	1905	8	8,000 00	Municipal Purposes
1874	100,000	1905	8	8,000 00	Refunding sch. bond
1875	165,000	1885	8	13,200 00	..... Lake Sewer

Total $664,400

54,828 80

The item of $165,000 bonds issued in 1875, were for the construction of the Lake Sewer, and is payable by the property benefited by that improvement, the city only extending its guarantee.

The assessed value of property within the city limits for 1875-6 is $17,351,549. That of Oakland, including the Township outside the city limits, is $22,777,602. Brooklyn