

by the association. The reading room is open every evening. A lot 75 by 100 feet on Webster street near Seventh has recently been purchased, and a large and elegant hall will soon be erected. Officers: Richard Emil Harmon, President; W. Humeltenberg, Vice-President; August Folde, Secretary; Henry Sohst, Treasurer; Henry Heyer, Assistant Treasurer; Henry Heitmann, First Leader; Ch. Otto, Second Leader; Gotlieb Koch, Steward and Librarian.

MILITARY.

OAKLAND GUARD—Unattached. Belonging to Second Brigade N. G. C. Armory, on Broadway, between Seventh and Eighth. Weekly drill, every Thursday evening. H. D. Ranlet, Captain; Henry Maloon, First Lieutenant; Oscar Sarpy, Second Lieutenant; Levi S. Bixby, Orderly Sergeant. Membership, 86.

BANKS.

First National Gold Bank of Oakland.

969 Broadway. V. D. Moody, President; J. W. Knox, Vice-President; G. M. Fisher, Cashier. Authorized capital, $1,000,000. Paid up capital, $100,000. Deposits December 31, 1875, $103,000. Outstanding loans, December 31, 1875, $125,000.

Union National Gold Bank.

Southeast corner Broadway and Ninth. A. C. Henry, President; H. A. Palmer, Secretary. Capital, $100,000.

Oakland Bank of Savings.

915 Broadway. E. C. Sessions, President; W. W. Camron, Vice-President; Charles Roberts, Cashier. Authorizee capital, $1,000,000. Depositors December 31, 1875, 1,007. Deposits, $904,494. Loans, $1,122,670. Earnings for six months $76,944. Dividends, $62,425.