

H. M. DE FRANCE,
President.

W. LYNN WHITE,
Secretary.

NATIONAL BUSINESS COLLEGE

PORTLAND, OREGON.

AN INSTITUTION OF BUSINESS TRAINING,

Supplied with Experienced Teachers of the Highest Ability in each Department.

While in this Institution nothing is omitted, which, in the experience of old or new Business Colleges, tends to facilitate the progress of the student, no Diploma will in any case be issued until the student, upon examination, is proven worthy of one. To this stringent rule this Institution owes the fact that, for the number graduated, IT HAS MORE STUDENTS IN FIRST-CLASS SITUATIONS THAN ANY BUSINESS COLLEGE IN THE UNION. The student is thoroughly drilled in all METHODS OF BOOK KEEPING, adapted to every kind of business.

LADIES' DEPARTMENT

Lately organized, and ladies in attendance in all the departments.

DEPARTMENT OF TELEGRAPHY

Fitted in elegant style, with First-Class Offices and Apparatus.

DEPARTMENT OF PHONOGRAPHY,

Under the Superintendence of a Practical Short-Hand Reporter.

DEPARTMENT OF PENMANSHIP

Conducted by one of the leading Penmen of America.

COMMERCIAL LAW LECTURES, ETC., THROUGHOUT THE YEAR.

NO VACATIONS. Day and Evening Sessions Continue Throughout the Entire Year.

Send for "N. B. College Journal,"—sent Free.

Address, DE FRANCE & WHITE, Lock Box 104,
PORTLAND, OREGON.