

President; George W. Lewis, Secretary; William P. Pinkham, Treasurer; P. J. Ipsen, Librarian.

LAW LIBRARY ASSOCIATION.—The urgent necessity of having a law library for the use and benefit of lawyers living in Oakland, but practicing in San Francisco, as also for members of the bar doing business here, induced the starting of a law library association. It was incorporated February 25, 1878. There is no capital stock.

The objects are the creation and maintenance of a law library in the City of Oakland, for the use of the city and county officials, judges of Courts of Record in Alameda County, the law students of the University of the State of California, and such members of the bar as shall become members of the association.

Trustees.—Charles N. Fox, John A. Stanly, Z. Montgomery, John Garber, E. T. Pringle, J. H. Smith, E. B. Mastick, H. A. Leake, W. W. Crane, Jr., Charles A. Tuttle, Marcus P. Wiggin.

UNION READING ROOM.—The Union Reading Room Association of Oakland was organized in March, 1877.

As particular reference is called to this enterprise in the General Review, the following additional information is only necessary to be given in this connection: Terms of membership of the Association, $1 a year; life membership, $100.

---

MERCHANTS' EXCHANGE.

The objects of this Association are to promote the general welfare of the City of Oakland and enable its business men and citizens to be represented by some body which could present its wants as a city before the Legislature of the State. Number of members, eighty-four.

Officers.—E. G. Mathews, President; V. D. Moody, Vice-President; W. C. Tyndale, Secretary; Luke Doe, Treasurer.

---

BAR ASSOCIATION.

During the past year the members of the legal fraternity of Oakland organized a Bar Association for mutual benefit and improvement. It is an unincorporated society. The officers elect for 1878 are: Zach Montgomery, President; J. R. Glascock, Vice-President; Marcus P. Wiggin, Secretary; H. A. Leake, Treasurer.

---

MUNICIPAL OFFICERS—1854 to 1875.

MARCH, 1854 (first election under the charter of 1854).—Mayor, Horace W. Carpentier; City Council, Edward Gallagher, A. D. Eames, John Kelsey, George M. Blake, W. C. Josselyn, A. Marier; Clerk, J. R. Dunglinson; Marshal, John Hogan; Assessor, J. S. Tubbs.

MARCH, 1855.—Mayor, Charles Campbell; City Council, Edward Gallagher, A. D. Eames, S. J. Lynch, William Harwood, Andrew Williams, Leonard Johnson; Clerk, Thomas Gallagher; Marshal, J. P. M. Davis; Assessor, Andrew Crosswell.

MARCH, 1856.—Mayor, S. H. Robinson; City Council, R. Worthington, William Hillegass, Edward Gibbons, George H. Fogg, J. G. Kitt-ridge, F. K. Shattuck; Clerk, Thomas Gallagher; Marshal, J. P. M. Davis; Assessor, A. D. McDevitt.

MARCH, 1857.—Mayor, A. Williams; City Council, William Harwood, A. Davison, William Hillegass, R. Worthington, James Lentell, A. Mar-

Go to INGERSOLL'S, No. 1069 Broadway, cor. Twelfth, for pictures of all kinds.