

on the third Sunday of each month. The objects of the society are to provide for and relieve the necessities of sick and indigent Hebrews.

Officers.—Mrs. J. J. Bettman, President; Mrs. J. Letter, Vice-President; Mrs. S. Cohen, Secretary; Mrs. R. Bell, Treasurer; Mrs. A. Cerf, Mrs. H. M. Coffee, and Mrs. M. Rosenberg, Trustees.

WHOLESALE BUTCHERS' ASSOCIATION.

Organized March 20, 1877. Is composed of all the principal wholesale butchers of the city, and has for its object mutual protection and the enforcement of weekly collections. Office, 1068 Broadway.

Officers.—Henry Hayes, President; H. M. Ames, Secretary and Treasurer.

RETAIL BUTCHERS' ASSOCIATION.

Organized April 7, 1877. Is composed of about all the retail dealers of the city, and has for its object the mutual protection of the trade and the rigid enforcement of rules and regulations governing the same. Office, 866 Broadway.

Officers.—J. J. White, President; G. F. Smith, Vice-President; C. H. Rice, Treasurer; John McMullin, Secretary.

UNION CLUB.

Incorporated February 10, 1877. Number of members, seventy-five. Objects: social intercourse, etc. Rooms, 1069 Broadway, near Twelfth.

Officers.—A. C. Henry, President; Dr. E. M. Pardee, Vice-President; W. E. Greene, Secretary; V. D. Moody, Treasurer.

OAKLAND MERCHANTS' EXCHANGE.

Organized October 1, 1877. Number of members, eighty-five. Meets every Friday evening in their room, 911 Washington Street. Objects: The advancement of the commercial and other interests of Oakland.

Officers.—E. G. Mathews, President; V. D. Moody, Vice-President; W. C. Tyndale, Secretary; Luke Doe, Treasurer.

UNION READING ROOM.

Opened in March, 1877. Located on the northeast corner of Eleventh and Washington. Here are found on file all the daily, morning, and evening papers, and the principal weekly papers published in the State, as well as the principal magazines and illustrated papers. The Reading Room has also a library of four hundred volumes. Open from eight o'clock A.M. to ten o'clock P.M., Sundays included.

Officers.—Henry A. Vrooman, President; Hon. W. A. Bartlett, Vice-President; Mrs. J. M. Selfridge, Second Vice-President; J. R. Porter, Secretary; G. M. Fisher, Treasurer; William R. Stearns, Superintendent; Charles Snyder, Librarian.

NATIVE SONS OF THE GOLDEN WEST.

OAKLAND LODGE, No. 2.—Instituted November, 1876. Number of members, about forty. Meets every Monday evening in Nicholl Hall, 474 Ninth.

Officers.—Homer L. Evans, President; F. W. Wilmans, First Vice-President; Frank Tyler, Second Vice-President; William Harris, Third Vice-President; Charles E. Broad, Recording Secretary; Norman J. Wilson, Financial Secretary; Benjamin S. Morris, Treasurer; A. L. Samson, Marshall.

OCCIDENTAL CLUB.

Organized February, 1878. Location of rooms, corner Twelfth and Harrison. Objects: social intercourse, reading room, etc. Number of members, sixty-three.

Sole agents for Wellington Coal in Alameda Co., O. K. FREEMAN & CO.