

perance and literary. Meets every Sunday evening, at 7 p. m., in Odd Fellows' Hall, corner East Central and Eleventh avenues. C. A. Pinkham, President; J. H. Taggart, Secretary.

ST. ANDREW'S BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.—Organized 1878. Meets every Thursday evening, in Pythian Castle. Number of members about 100. Archibald McKinlay, President; John Collins and Alexander Campbell, Vice-Presidents; James Templeton, Secretary; Thomas Turnbull, Financial Secretary; Peter Thompson, Treasurer.

---

MILITARY.

---

OAKLAND GUARD.—Unattached, Second Brigade, N. G. C. Armory, Millington's Hall. Membership, 78. Weekly drill every Thursday evening. Squad drill Tuesday. Henry Levy, Captain; ———, First Lieutenant; H. H. Burrell, Second Lieutenant; Martin Ryan, First Sergeant.

OAKLAND LIGHT CAVALRY.—Unattached, Second Brigade, N. G. C. Armory, 1069 Broadway. Membership, 79. Meets at armory every Monday evening, at 7:30 p. m. in Winter, and 8 p. m. in Summer. Squad drill every Thursday night. W. C. Little, Captain; T. H. Allen, First Lieutenant; W. H. H. Hussey, Second Lieutenant; Webb N. Pearce, Second Lieutenant; E. H. Woolsey, Surgeon; Rev. J. K. McLean, Chaplain; E. E. Danforth, First Sergeant; N. Williams, Quartermaster Sergeant.

OAKLAND AMATEUR RIFLE ASSOCIATION—Instituted April 18, 1876. Meets at 672 Eleventh street. Number of members, 40. This society is formed of amateurs who have been enabled by practice to compete with the best marksmen in the State. E. H. Pardee, President; E. J. Webster, Secretary; Sheldon I. Kellogg, Jr., Vice-President and Treasurer.

Thomas J. Morrison—Redwood and Puget Sound Lumber especially selected for Building purposes and Foreign Shipment.