

WILLIAM WALSH,
JUNCTION CASH GROCERY,
THE CHEAPEST PLACE IN OAKLAND 1319 Center and 1320 Peralta Sts.
TO BUY GROCERIES.

STREETS AND NUMBERS.

On September 10, 1890, after the greater part of our canvass was completed, the ordinance changing the names of streets, and also the system of numbering, was adopted by the city trustees. Upon consultation, however, with Mr. Geo. Sturtevant, the postmaster, and others, the publisher concluded to retain the old names and numbering, believing that they would be more useful for the present than the new. Under the ordinance above mentioned, the names of streets have been changed as follows:—

Main street	is now called	First street
Kellogg street	Second street
Davenport street	Third street
West End avenue	Fourth street
Second avenue	Fifth street
Third avenue	Sixth street
Webster street	(unchanged)
Prospect street	Eighth street
McPherson street	Ninth street
Chapin, Mozart and Weber streets	Tenth street
St. Charles street	Eleventh street
Bay street	Twelfth street
Sherman street	Thirteenth street
Morton street	Fourteenth street
Benton street	Fifteenth street
Paru street	Sixteenth street
Grand street	Seventeenth street
Union street	Eighteenth street
Lafayette street	Nineteenth street
Chestnut street	Twentieth street
Willow street	Twenty-first street
Walnut street	Twenty-second street
Oak street	Twenty-third street
Park street	(unchanged)
Regent and Everett streets	Twenty-fifth street
Broadway	Twenty-sixth street
Pearl street	Twenty-seventh street
Versailles avenue	Twenty-eighth street
Mound street	Twenty-ninth street
Court street	Thirtieth street
Fountain street	Thirty-first street
High street	(unchanged)
Post street	Thirty-third street
Peach street	Thirty-fourth street
Market street	Thirty-fifth street
Leandro street	Thirty-sixth street