THE MODEL NEWSPAPER OF ALAMEDA COUNTY.

OUR business is to publish a newspaper. People in this city and county say we succeed in making the best newspaper published in this locality. Certain it is, the ENQUIRER reaches more families than all other Oakland papers combined.

Our facilities are the most perfect; our gains in circulation the most rapid; our local and advertising columns the cleanest.

The Daily Enquirer,

An 8-page paper, is delivered by carriers in Oakland, Alameda, Berkeley and all principal towns throughout Alameda County, at 35 cents per month. By mail, $4.20 per year.

The ENQUIRER is an anti-ring paper—able and fearless. Exclusive United Press Despatches.

The Weekly Enquirer

Is a 12-page family paper, and contains choice literary matter, complete local, telegraphic and agricultural reports. It has the largest county and outside circulation of any weekly published in Alameda County. Subscription, by mail, $1.50 per year.
