

California College and its Allied Schools

A Junior College Preparing For the Third Year in the Universities

The Academy

An accredited four-year course for both sexes. Laboratories, library, gymnasium, excellent faculty.

The Sub-Academy

Upper and lower forms, corresponding approximately to primary and grammar grades. Small classes, promotion by subject.

School of Fine Arts

Instruction in vocal and instrumental music and theory. Also departments of art and elocution. Courses may be taken in conjunction with work done in the other schools, if desired.

The School of Business

Offering all the advantages of a business college, together with the collegiate atmosphere and uplifting influences of the whole institution.

Four well-furnished dormitories, physical training in the gymnasium. Christian influences, a superb and convenient location and a carefully chosen corps of teachers combine to make these schools an ideal place for the training of young people.
