MILLS COLLEGE

OAKLAND FOR WOMEN CALIFORNIA

Chartered in 1885. Located among the beautiful hills in the suburbs of Oakland, California. Grounds comprise 150 acres, beautified by two running streams, avenues of trees, palms and rose gardens. Twelve buildings well furnished. A faculty of thirty-eight members includes graduates from Mount Holyoke, Wellesley, Radcliffe, Bryn Mawr, Stanford University, State Universities of Wisconsin and California (some with graduate degrees from this country. Germany or France); also teachers of music and painting.

Full collegiate courses leading to degrees. Entrance and graduation requirements equivalent to those of Stanford and University of California. High standards of scholarship and character maintained. Training fits students for teaching regular lines of academic work, and offers special advantages for music, art, library study and home economics. Well equipped laboratories for science. Special attention to health of students. Modern gymnasium thoroughly equipped. Outdoor life and amusements in the ideal California climate. Christian though undenominational. Alumnae in every city on the Pacific Coast. Semesters open in August and January.

President, LUELLA CLAY CARSON. A. M., Litt. D., LL. D.
