

THE HOTEL OAKLAND.

13th & Harrison Sts. Oakland, California

Opened December 23rd, 1912, with the very latest appointments and conveniences, at a cost of $2,000,000. It ranks with the finest hotels and every effort is directed to catering to the individual guest.

The building is of Class A construction, absolutely fire-proof, and occupies nearly two acres in the heart of the city. Every one of its 450 rooms has an outside exposure and receives the maximum amount of natural light and warmth.

Thirty minutes from San Francisco. On the direct line of automobile travel through Alameda County. Many interesting trips are made from the Hotel Oakland to points of interest on the east side of San Francisco Bay.

Special accommodations for Commercial Travelers. Extra large sample rooms (with bath attached) on the Mezzanine Floor. From 75 to 150 feet of sample tables can be placed in these rooms. All bed rooms average larger than usual.

Tariff from $1.50 per Day Up

EUROPEAN PLAN ONLY

Under Management of

VICTOR REITER