

THE HOTEL OAKLAND

“On the Sunny Side of the Bay”

Thirty Minutes from the Heart of San Francisco, with the most Perfect and Healthful Climate in California

¶ Opened December 23rd, 1912, with the very latest appointments and conveniences, at a cost of $2,000,000. It ranks with the finest hotels and every effort is directed to catering to the individual guest.

¶ The building is of Class “A” construction, absolutely fire-proof, and occupies nearly two acres in the heart of the city. Every one of its 460 rooms has an outside exposure and receives the maximum amount of light and sunshine.

¶ On the direct line of automobile travel through Alameda County. Many interesting trips over beautiful roads are made from the Hotel Oakland to points of interest on the east side of San Francisco Bay.

¶ Special accommodations for commercial men. Extra large sample rooms.

¶ Bedrooms and closets average larger than usual.

Rates
FROM $1.50 PER DAY

Under the Management of
VICTOR REITER