Berkeley

Looking Through the Golden Gate, Offers You:

An ideal living and working climate, cool in summer, mild in winter.

The most favorable health conditions of any city of its size in America.

A City Manager government.

A successfully financed Community Chest providing for Berkeley's 21 welfare agencies.

The most modern and progressive police and fire protection.

Exceptionally fine schools preparing for the entrance to the University.

The University of California, one of America's greatest institutions of higher education.

A high type of citizens interested in all that is best in American life.

Attractive homes, artistically designed, set in gardens of perennial bloom.
