

This Diamond Identifies Members of Oakland's Largest Realty Sales Force

BUYERS who wish to pick carefully from as complete a variety as possible, and Owners who wish their properties promptly placed before the largest number of prospects, find the eighty brokers and two hundred salesmen of the Oakland Realty Multiple Sales Association, Inc.

(A non-profit, public service corporation)

can accomplish more than any single office, however large or well-established.

Every Association Member has uniform, classified records covering the whole East-Lake District. Not only were these scientifically planned, they are also corrected daily. The listings of all members are pooled, giving each member full information regarding thousands of current buys in the fastest growing section of Oakland. As each one can deal on any of these properties, it pays all members to put their clients' interest first. When you employ one member, you employ all!

The Association cooperates with all reliable brokers, whether members or not. All it wants is results for its clients. It has no selfish end to serve.

[See colored insert in classified section for further particulars and the names and addresses of members]
