California Lawn Tennis Club

Club Grounds, Southeast Corner Bush and Scott Streets

The California Lawn Tennis Club of San Francisco, organized September 13, 1884, Club Grounds southeast corner of Bush and Scott streets. Club colors, red and white. The club comprises about 160 members, including some of the most prominent people in the City. The grounds are conveniently located, under lease for ten years, and have five asphalt courts, a clubhouse with dressing-rooms, shower-bath facilities and reading-room. Tournaments are held in the spring and fall of each year, and on Saturday afternoons, Club day, games are always in progress. The grounds are open every day in charge of a keeper, and visitors are welcome at any time.
