THE BEST SHORTHAND SCHOOL

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN—

WHEREAS, the Official Shorthand Reporters in the various Courts are frequently requested for information concerning the best method of acquiring proficiency in shorthand writing and,

WHEREAS, Mr. Robert F. Gallagher, for many years an official Shorthand Reporter in the Superior Courts of this City and County, and an expert phonographic reporter, is conducting a practical Shorthand and Typewriting School, in the Parrott (Emporium) Building, Rooms 425-6-7-8, in this City and County.

NOW THEREFORE, we take pleasure in recommending ROBERT F. GALLAGHER'S PRACTICAL SHORTHAND SCHOOL to all persons who are desirous of learning Shorthand, either with the view of filling office positions, or of fitting themselves to become Court Reporters.

Ernest A. Girvin, Phonographic Reporter Supreme Court of California
 A. L. Coombs, Official Reporter Superior Court, Dept. 1
 Charles R. Gagen, Official Reporter Superior Court, Dept. 2
 H. N. Hall, Official Reporter Superior Court, Dept. 3
 H. A. Jones, Official Reporter Superior Court, Dept. 4
 E. S. Belden, Official Reporter Superior Court, Dept. 5
 Luke Kavanaugh, Official Reporter Superior Court, Dept. 6
 J. J. Maginis, Official Reporter Superior Court, Dept. 7
 J. L. Holland, Official Reporter Superior Court, Dept. 8
 S. B. Sumner, Official Reporter Superior Court, Dept. 9
 H. W. Walter, Official Reporter Superior Court, Dept. 10
 Frank C. Drew, Official Reporter Superior Court, Dept. 11
 Joseph P. Stevens, Official Reporter Superior Court, Dept. 12
 Frank Vernon, Official Reporter Police Court 1
 J. C. Mulligan, Official Reporter Police Court 3
 Howard Vernon, Official Reporter Police Court 4

The above recommendation speaks for itself, and if followed serves as a guaranty against mistake. If you wish to learn Shorthand avoid "Business Colleges," where the teachers are unable to write it properly, and, therefore, cannot teach it; you should attend a school conducted by one whom you know to be a practical Court Reporter.
