The Cumberland has been opened as a first-class Family Hotel. The Hotel is newly built and is replete with all modern conveniences, Electric Elevator, Steam Heating, and Electric Lights on all floors; it is furnished with the latest styles of Eastern and European furniture. The cuisine is under the charge of an experienced chef who, with a staff of competent assistants, will provide a menu leaving nothing to be desired. The lessees of "The Cumberland," Mesdames Fortescue & Grant, have had a large experience both in San Francisco and the East, and will spare no effort to maintain their house in a first-class style, and offer to guests who may honor them with their patronage a comfortable and handsome home.
