SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.

Messrs. WILLIAM COULSON & SONS, Belfast, Ireland, beg to announce that their representative, JAMES KENDALL, will show in a display room at the Starr King Building, 121 Geary Street, Room 335, a full range of samples of their REAL IRISH LINENS, consisting of Hand Loom Table Damasks, Sheetings, Towellings, etc., together with a magnificent assortment of exclusive designs in Hand Embroidered Goods of every description. This will be an exceptional opportunity for ladies interested in fine linens to secure the same at extremely low prices, as Messrs. Wm. Coulson & Sons propose supplying all orders direct from their Belfast factory, thus eliminating all usual intermediate profits, also being assured of obtaining the very soundest goods in the market.

Specimens of the table linen supplied to Her Late Majesty Queen Victoria and also to His Majesty, King Edward VII., prior to his accession to the throne, will be on view.

All orders will be shipped direct through New York Bankers, Messrs. Knauth, Nachod & Kuhne, 13 William Street, to whom payments may be made after examination of goods.
