

THE RENTON.

712 Sutter Street, San Francisco.

Telephone, East 78.

Reception Day, Monday.

The Hotel Renton, 712 Sutter St., has been under new management since December, 1904. Everything possible has been done to place this well known hotel on the highest plane. The house has been thoroughly renovated, the high standard of service has been maintained and the cuisine is now equal to that of any high class family hotel.

There are over seventy sunny outside rooms, ensuite and single. The furnishings are new and embrace everything known to the comforts of hotel life.

The spacious halls and wide stairways give the visitor the idea of quiet elegance. Everything possible is done to make the hotel home-like and the appreciative comments of satisfied patrons speak volumes as to the success of the efforts of the management in this direction.

The hotel, while situated in a quiet neighborhood, is but ten minutes walk from the important business districts—a location convenient alike for the tourist and the business man.

For further information and rates apply to
R. L. Bisby, Manager.