

HOTEL PLEASANTON

OAKLAND

HOTEL PLEASANTON.

The Hotel Pleasanton, one of the popular public houses in Oakland, has been recently remodeled, completely renovated, and richly furnished throughout, and is now under the management of Mrs. Ellen McKenna, who is the proprietor. It is situated at 1162 Washington Street, Oakland, having a frontage on Fourteenth Street facing th City Hall.

There are two street car lines over Washington and Fourteenth streets, and it is One block from the principal theatres and two blocks from the postoffice and Wells Fargo & Co.

Under the present management it has become the popular resort for the most prominent families and ranks with the leading hotels of Oakland.

It has been the purpose of the management to make this house a pleasant and attractive home and in this connection a public resort that will be as near an approach to home life as can be under this environment.
