Oakland's Finest Commercial and Tourist Hotel

1304 BROADWAY

Next to Postoffice.

Oakland, Cal.

JOHN B. JORDAN, Proprietor

A strictly modern hotel with steam heat, hot and cold water, electric lights and electric elevator. Private exchange telephone system in every room. The building is a five-story brick, next to the postoffice. Most of the rooms have a private bath. Furnishings are elegant. Carpeted with Middlesex Axminsters and Wilton Velvets, and furniture to match.

The hotel Athens, Oakland, Cal., on which John B. Jordan, the proprietor, is spending $20,000 on interior changes and decoration. The lobby, offices, bar, grill and dining room of the Athens are being entirely refitted.

The Athens has gained great popularity under its present management; is headquarters for tourists and Army and Navy officers, and a general and popular resort for the leading citizens of Oakland, San Francisco and adjacent cities in this vicinity.
