

Weeks' Stage Station.

R. J. WEEKS, Proprietor.

13 Miles S. W. Redwood City, San Mateo Co., California.

---

This Station cannot be too highly recommended to wayfarers and tourists.

The Barn is the finest, best fitted and most commodious one in the State, being 100 feet in width by 110 in length, having an extreme height of 45 feet.

The locality is Picturesque. Two small lakes are in the immediate vicinity.

For the accommodations of bed and board, it would be impossible for travelers to be better entertained. The table is furnished with everything which can add to its attractiveness, while the cookery is superb. The hospitality of the establishment is large and open-handed, and we promise to any chance caller at this house abundance of good cheer and an enjoyable sojourn.
