

- Salz Sigmund, clerk, Centerville.
- Sampson Mrs H. N., wid, res cor 6th and Market, Oakland.
- Sampson James, porter, (Fennessy & Hayden), Oakland.
- Samuel M., peddler, Washington township.
- Samuels Jno., carpenter, res 5th, between Franklin and Webster, Oakland.
- SAN LEANDRO—Is a thriving town, the county seat of Alameda county. It has a population of about 1,000 inhabitants. It derives its name from San Leandro creek, on which it is built. The principal buildings are the court house, jail, several stores and hotels, and an agricultural implement manufactory. The town supports one weekly newspaper—the Gazette.
- Sanborn D. M., farmer, Centerville.
- Sanborn H., gardener, Oakland.
- Sanborn M. K., carpenter, Centerville.
- Sanderson Wm., laborer, Alameda.
- Sands Jacob, carpenter, Oakland.
- Saney G. F., architect, Oakland.
- Sanford E. P., druggist, Broadway, above 8th, res cor Clay and 13th, Oakland.
- Sanford O. W., engineer, Oakland.
- San Francisco and Alameda Railroad.
- San Francisco and Oakland Railroad, depot cor Broadway and 7th, Oakland.
- Sarcander August, laborer, Brooklyn.
- Sarenson H., laborer, Haywards.
- Sargent R. K., carpenter, Oakland.
- Sarpy Oscar, merchant, Oakland.
- Sather P., banker, (S. F.), res cor 13th and Castro, Oakland.
- Saufley Robt. E., Eureka Stables, Oakland Point station, Oakland.
- Saul Peter, hostler, Brooklyn.
- Saul R. M., printer, res San Leandro, Haywards.