

STUART D., boots and shoes, Broadway, bet 8th and 9th, res cor Washington and 10th, Oakland. (See adv, p 263.)

Stuble P. H., farmer, Centerville.

Stubby H., laborer, Oakland.

Stubbs G. A., mechanic, res cor 2d and Clay, Oakland.

Studwick Joseph, shoemaker, Oakland.

Styen Chas., cook, Oakland.

Sullivan C., laborer, res 16th, near Cypress, Oakland.

Sullivan Cornelius, laborer, Haywards.

Sullivan D., laborer, Oakland.

Sullivan Dennis, blacksmith, San Leandro.

Sullivan E., blacksmith, Brooklyn township.

Sullivan F., hostler, Dougherty Station.

Sullivan F., laborer, San Leandro.

Sullivan Geo. F., painter, Brooklyn.

The YO SEMITE HOUSE, Stockton, is the Business Center.

D. STUART,

—OF THE—

PIONEER SHOE STORE

ESTABLISHED, 1857.

BROADWAY.

OAKLAND.

Bet. EIGHTH and NINTH STS.,

Would take this method of letting the public know that he is making to order the latest styles of Ladies and Children's Shoes, having now the very best facilities. We are prepared to do work at very short notice and finished up to time. All favoring us with their orders can rely on having a perfect fitting Gaiter, made of the best material and at THE LOWEST POSSIBLE PRICE. We try by every fair and honorable means to give our patrons entire satisfaction and good value for their money. A full assortment of the latest styles of ready-made work always on hand.

OAKLAND, March 12th, 1871.

D. STUART.

R. H. McDonald & Co., corner Market and First streets, San Francisco.