

ALTA CALIFORNIA NEWSPAPER.

Established in 1849.—The Pioneer of California.

DAILY, WEEKLY & STEAMER EDITIONS.

THE DAILY ALTA CALIFORNIA.

The "Alta California" is the largest and oldest Newspaper in the State; has the largest circulation ever attained by any Morning Daily, and is the best advertising medium on the Pacific Coast. The MORNING-EDITION is furnished to subscribers in San Francisco and such places as are reached by Steamboats, Stages, &c., leaving the City in the morning. The EVENING EDITION is published at half-past two o'clock each day, and contains twelve hours later news than the Morning Edition.—The Evening Edition is intended for the Interior Cities, Towns and Mining Camps, and is forwarded by the Boats leaving the City each day at 4 o'clock, P. M.

TERMS—50 cents per Week, delivered by Carriers in the principal Towns; $15.00 per annum, or $9.00 for six months, sent by mail.

THE WEEKLY ALTA CALIFORNIA

Is a large double sheet, of the size of the New York Herald, of eight pages and forty-eight columns, having fifty per cent. more reading matter than any other paper in the State, embracing all the current News of the day, mining, agricultural, legal, political, social and literary; and having correspondents in every prominent place on the globe, whose facilities for giving information cannot be exceeded. It also has the Daily Market Reports, Marine News, Marriages, Deaths, etc. It is strictly independent of all political parties. The Weekly Alta is published every Friday, so as to reach the principal Mining Towns on Saturday Evening.

TERMS—$5.00 per annum, and $3.00 for six months.

THE STEAMER ALTA CALIFORNIA.

This paper is by all odds the LARGEST STEAMER PAPER ISSUED IN CALIFORNIA. In its forty-eight columns will be found all the Current News of the State; Foreign and Home Correspondence; Mining, Commercial and News Summary of the fortnight preceding the departure of each Steamer; the Legal, Social and Political Intelligence of all California;—intended for circulation throughout the Atlantic States, Europe, South America, &c. Persons wishing to send papers HOME to their friends, can have this paper sent direct from the office in San Francisco, to any address in the Atlantic States, Europe, &c.

SUBSCRIPTION—$5.00 per annum, or $3.00 for six months.
