

immigrants newly arrived. The Society has a hospital situated in Brannan Street near Third, built of brick, two stories high, with a basement, 112½ feet front, 50 feet deep, with a wing in the rear of 23 feet front, 122 feet deep, furnished with steam, sulphur, hot and cold water and shower baths, and other conveniences for the treatment of the sick. The wards are smaller than in any other hospital in the city, so that not many patients are put together in a room. The lot upon which the hospital is built is 137 feet 6 inches wide by 275 feet long, the whole surrounded by a high fence and cultivated in a fine garden, a part planted with ornamental flowers and shrubs, and a part with kitchen vegetables. The property of the society, including the lot and hospital buildings, is worth about $36,500, and the debts amount to about $7,000. The revenue of the society amounted in 1861 to about $20,000, derived chiefly from a monthly assessment of $1 levied on each member. The expenses of the hospital in the year 1861 amounted to $22,219 90, of which $9,703 65 were paid by the Society and $12,516 25 by paying patients. In the year 1861 the hospital received 517 patients, of whom 372 were members, 52 non-members, and 93 paying patients. During the last seven years 399 persons, non-members of the association were received in the hospital out of charity, and maintained by the association during 10,795 sick days in all, and an expense of $19,034. The Society has as paid servants in the hospital, a superintendent, an apothecary, a gardener, a cook, and five waiters. The present officers of the Society are:

LADIES' SEAMEN'S FRIEND SOCIETY.—Organized March 26, 1856. The object of the Society is to establish a boarding house for seamen, where they may find a home and protection, and be surrounded with influences which shall tend to their moral and intellectual improvement; and to supply the destitute with clothing. The Sailors' Home was opened February 10, 1857—a little more than five years since. During that time four thousand, nine hundred and seventy-five sailors have boarded in the house. The past year it has been under the charge of Capt. W. A. Abbott and wife. Under their administration the house has always presented a neat appearance—the sleeping rooms in good order, a well supplied table, and every comfort afforded that the income of the boarders would admit. The building occupied by the
