

The Book House and general News Agency of Mr. ROBERT J. BETGE was established in this city as early as the year, 1849. Mr. Betge began business in San Francisco with an experience of sixteen years in the Book Trade in the city of New York, which, together with the knowledge acquired of the wants of this market since his advent here, enables him to extend to his customers advantages offered by few, if any other houses in the business.

In addition to his regular stock of Blank Books and Stationery, Mr. Betge is constantly in receipt, by every steamer, of the latest publications of all Miscellaneous Books, Magazines, Newspapers, &c., published in the States and Europe.

The reading community will here find a choice assortment of reading matter, from which to make selections, and suited to every condition of mind, whether of a fanciful or sedate turn.

Mr. Betge is prepared to supply the Trade on the most favorable terms.
