

THE CITY COLLEGE

OF

SAN FRANCISCO.

This Institution is situated at the Corner of

STOCKTON AND GEARY STREETS, OPPOSITE UNION SQUARE,

In the central part of the City. It furnishes the best facilities for acquiring a thorough

ENGLISH, MATHEMATICAL,
COMMERCIAL,
AND CLASSICAL EDUCATION.

The Course of Studies is the same pursued in the best Colleges.

THE SCIENTIFIC COURSE

Has been adopted with special reference to the wants of California. PROFESSOR PRICE, besides his lectures and instruction in the College, has a Laboratory in the city in which classes are taken through a thorough practical course of

ASSAYING AND CHEMISTRY,

With special reference to Metallurgy and Mining.

Measures have been taken for the immediate erection of a Laboratory on the College Premises.

AN ENGLISH EDUCATION

Receives particular and thorough attention. Patient, laborious drilling is the leading feature in the instruction, from the Elementary Classes through all the higher studies.

BOOK-KEEPING is taught with care, and a room is kept for this purpose, fitted up with the fixtures of a complete counting-house.

Nine Instructors are constantly employed, and one hundred and fifty Students are in attendance in the different departments.

On the spacious lot adjoining the College is a fine Gymnasium for the use of the Students.

There is a valuable Philosophical and Chemical Apparatus, in a large hall, kept exclusively for Lectures and Experiments, to which the Students have access.

For terms and further particulars, address

REV. P. V. VEEDER,

Principal of the San Francisco City College.
