

To one Copying Clerk, one hundred and fifty dollars per month.
 To the Deputy County Clerks for the Fourth District Court, as follows :
 To one Court Room Clerk, one hundred and seventy-five dollars per month.
 To one Register Clerk, one hundred and seventy-five dollars per month.
 To one Copying Clerk, one hundred and fifty dollars per month.
 To the Deputy County Clerks for the Fifteenth District Court, as follows:—[Act February 20, 1868.]

To one Court-Room Clerk, one hundred and seventy-five dollars per month.
 To one Register Clerk, one hundred and seventy-five dollars per month.
 To one Copying Clerk, one hundred and fifty dollars per month.
 To the Deputy County Clerks for the County Court, Court of Sessions, and Probate Court, as follows :

The County Clerk may appoint two Deputies for the County Court, one of whom shall receive a salary of one hundred and seventy-five dollars per month, and the other a salary of one hundred and fifty dollars per month. The said County Clerk may also appoint two Deputies for the Probate Court, one of whom shall receive a salary of one hundred and seventy-five dollars per month, and the other a salary of one hundred and fifty dollars per month.—[Amendment March 2, 1864.]

In addition to the deputies allowed by law, the County Clerk is authorized [Act February 20, 1868] to employ, from time to time, as many extra copyists as may be necessary to perform the duties of his office, who shall severally be paid a compensation not to exceed six cents a folio of one hundred words, for the matter recorded by them respectively: provided, the amount so paid shall not exceed three-fourths of the amount received by said Clerk for the copying and recording done by them during such month.

To the Sheriff, eight thousand dollars per annum.
 To one Under Sheriff, two hundred dollars per month.
 To six Deputy Sheriffs, each one hundred and fifty dollars per month.—[Amendment April 4, 1864.]

To four Deputies, acting as Jail-Keepers, each one hundred and twenty-five dollars per month.
 To one Book-Keeper for the Sheriff's office, one hundred and fifty dollars per month.
 The Sheriff may appoint a Deputy to act as Bailiff for the Fourteenth District Court, at a salary of one hundred and fifty dollars per month. [Act March 31, 1866] and may appoint, if deemed necessary by the Board of Supervisors, a Matron and Assistant Matron for the female department of the County Jail, at a salary not exceeding one hundred dollars per month.—[Act April 4, 1864.]

In addition to the deputies now allowed by law, the Sheriff may appoint [Act March 20, 1868] one additional Deputy, and an Assistant Book-Keeper to act as Deputy Sheriff; said Deputy shall receive a salary of one hundred and fifty dollars per month, and the Assistant Book-Keeper one hundred dollars per month.

The Sheriff shall have power [Act March 20, 1868] to appoint and remove two of the porters now appointed by the Board of Supervisors to take charge and perform duties about the Court and other rooms of the City Hall.

The Sheriff shall be allowed [Act March 20, 1868] the sum of twelve hundred dollars per annum, to defray his expenses for counsel and attorneys' fees.

To the Coroner, twenty-five hundred dollars per annum—[Act March 31, 1866]; he shall also be allowed and paid, as fees, fifty dollars per month, for chemical analyses, and ten dollars for each interment made by him—[Act March 12, 1864]; and he shall likewise receive for the interment of deceased persons payment at the same rate, each, as is allowed for the interment of deceased hospital patients in said city and county, not to exceed ten dollars for each interment made by him. The compensation allowed by this Act shall be paid out of the General Fund, and shall be audited and paid in the same manner as the salaries of officers for the said city and county: provided, that the said Coroner shall make oath that he has received no compensation for any of the items charged in his demand; and that the interments charged in his demand, if any have been made by him, and that the bodies interred were proper subjects for burial by the Coroner.—[Act March 12, 1864.]

To the Mayor, three thousand dollars per annum.
 To the Clerk of the Mayor, one hundred and fifty dollars per month.—[Amendment April 4, 1864.]

Health Officer, two hundred dollars per month.—[Act February 14, 1866.]
 To the City and County Surveyor, five hundred dollars per annum, which shall be in lieu of all fees or other charges for official services, which would otherwise be a city and county charge, and he shall charge and collect, for services rendered individuals, such fees as may be prescribed and allowed by the Board of Supervisors.

The Assessor shall receive, for all services required of him by law, a salary at the rate of