

Second. To submit his vessel, cargo, and passengers, to the examination of the Quarantine Officer, and to furnish all necessary information to enable that officer to determine to what length of quarantine and other regulations they ought respectively to be subject, or neglect to report all cases of disease mentioned in this Act, and all cases of death occurring on his vessel, and to comply with all the sanitary regulations of said bay and harbor, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding three months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 10. All vessels arriving off the harbor of San Francisco, from ports which have been legally declared infected ports, and all vessels arriving from ports where there shall be prevailing at the time of their departure, any contagious, infectious, or pestilential diseases, (especially small-pox, Asiatic cholera, or yellow fever) or vessels with decaying cargoes, or which have unusually foul and offensive holds, shall be subject to quarantine; and it shall be the duty of the master, owner, pilot, or consignee, to report any and all such vessel or vessels to the Quarantine Officer without delay. No such vessel shall cross a right line drawn from Black Point to Alcatraz Island, till the Quarantine Officer shall have boarded her and given the order required by law, except some other line may be hereafter fixed by the Board of Health, and approved by the Governor.

SEC. 11. It shall be the duty of the Health Officer to aid in carrying into effect the provisions of this Act, and also to perform such other duties as now are or hereafter may be required of him by the Board of Supervisors not inconsistent with any provisions of law.

SEC. 12. The Board of Health shall establish the rates of fees which shall be charged vessels in pursuance of this Act, which shall not exceed fees for similar services allowed in New York, and the Quarantine Officer shall collect the same, and pay them weekly into the City Treasury, to the credit of the General Fund; and he may be allowed for his services as Quarantine Officer, one hundred dollars per month, by the Board of Supervisors, and such necessary expenses as he may incur in the discharge of his duties, after the same shall have been approved by the Board of Health, to be paid out of said General Fund; provided, he collect so much for fees; but in no case shall he receive more in any one month than he collects during said month.

SEC. 13. The Board of Health may appoint a Clerk, and the Supervisors may order paid, the Auditor audit, and the Treasurer pay, twenty-five dollars per month from the General Fund; the Auditor shall audit, and the Treasurer pay, all other sums allowed under this Act out of said General Fund.

*The following Special Acts, applicable to the City and County of San Francisco, were passed by the Legislature of the State at the Session of 1867-'68:

- I. California Dry Dock, extending certain privileges. See Statutes, page 422.
- II. Channel Street Canal, providing for. See Statutes, page 355.
- III. Commissioners Funded Debt, referring to the collection of taxes for the payment of bonds, and authorizing a monthly salary of one hundred dollars to each Commissioner, one hundred and twenty-five dollars to the President of the Board, and two hundred and fifty dollars per month to the Secretary. An expenditure of two hundred dollars per month for Clerk hire, rent, and office expenses, is also authorized. See Statutes, page 145.
- IV. Deaf, Dumb, and Blind Asylum, authorizing the conveyance of certain property. See Statutes, page 132.
- V. Felton Contract, ratifying a certain contract with the Board of Supervisors. See Statutes, page 662.
- VI. Fire Marshal, requiring his appointment to be confirmed by the Board of Fire Commissioners, and authorizing the Marshal to appoint a Deputy to act during his absence. See Statutes, page 280.
- VII. Gauger of Liquors, amending former Act creating office of. See Statutes, page 606.
- VIII. Grades of Streets, establishing grade of Broadway. See Statutes, page 283. Jones and Taylor Streets; see page 86. Second Street; see page 594. Third Street; see page 85.
- IX. Harbor Commissioners, extending privileges to California, Oregon, and Mexico Steamship Co. See Statutes, page 408. To Merchants' Dry Dock; see page 373. To Pacific Mail Steamship Co.; see page 409. To Union Lumber Association; see page 715. Authorizing the appointment of a Civil Engineer, at a salary of four thousand dollars per annum, and an Assistant Secretary, at a monthly salary of one hundred and twenty-five dollars; also, an appropriation for rent and office expenses; see page 217.
- X. Howard Street Religious Society, changing name of. See Statutes, page 268.
- XI. Industrial School, authorizing an appropriation of three thousand dollars per month for its support. See Statutes, page 505.
- XII. Islais Creek, declaring it a navigable stream. See Statutes, page 256.
- XIII. Orphan Asylum, Protestant, protecting certain property. See Statutes, page 95.
- XIV. Pacific Rolling Mill, authorizing the sale of certain overflowed lands to. See Statutes, page 432.
- XV. Railroads, Bay View, authorizing the construction of, from Bay View to University Extension Tract. See Statutes, page 312. Central, changing route of. See Statutes, page 711. Folsom and Fort Point, extending time for the construction of. See Statutes, page 322. Front Street, Mission and Ocean, extending time for the completion of. See Statutes, page 278. Ratifying a certain assignment from the Folsom Street Railroad to. See page 323. Market Street, authorizing the extension of, and granting additional privileges. See Statutes, page 607. Montgomery and Polk Street, authorizing the construction of. See Statutes, page 376. North Beach and Mission, extending time for the construction of. See Statutes, page 279. Omnibus, granting additional rights and privileges. See Statutes, page 669. Pacific, providing depot grounds for the terminal of. See Statutes, page 473. Potrero and Bay View, amending Act authorizing the construction of. See Statutes, page 475. Rowell Street, extending time for construction of. See Statutes, page 514. South San Francisco, authorizing the construction of. See Statutes, page 470.
- XVI. United States Lands, exempting certain, from taxation. See Statutes, page 6.
- XVII. United States Property, ratifying the sale and transfer of certain land. See Statutes, page 657.
- XVIII. Water Front, San Francisco, for the protection of, and the prevention of nuisances. See Statutes, page 234.