The church building, 40 by 60 feet, with prayer room, was built by the Howard Street M. E. Church for a Mission Sunday School in 1864, and was dedicated in September of that year. It was built upon leased ground nearly opposite its present location, and was subsequently removed to a lot purchased on Sixth street, corner of Minna. In the spring of 1866 that lot was sold and the present site was bought, and the building transferred to it. The lot is 75 feet front on Mission Street, running through 160 feet, to Jessie Street. During the present year the building and lot has been improved at a cost of about $2,000.

The Society was organized in the fall of 1864, and consisted chiefly of former members of the Howard Street Church. Rev. J. D. Blain, then recent pastor of Howard Street Church, was pastor till the fall of 1865, when the present pastor succeeded him.

The Society now numbers, including probationers, one hundred and fifty.
