

JAMES B. BREWSTER,

No. 65 East Twenty-Fifth Street,
NEW YORK,

Would inform the citizens of California that he is prepared to fill any orders entrusted to him for

ELEGANT CARRIAGES,

THAT HIS IS THE

“Old House of Brewster,”

ESTABLISHED BY HIM IN 1838,

And he is the Original Maker of the Celebrated

BREWSTER WAGON,

TO WHICH HE ATTACHES HIS NEW PATENT

Supporting and Draught Bars,

Consisting of STEEL Plates inserted into the Axle-beds, Bars, and Whiffletrees, giving this Wagon TWICE the usual strength, and will deliver them on board vessel, and PREPAY the freight to San Francisco.

Those with Tops for - - - - - $460

Without Tops for - - - - - 350

IN CURRENCY.

Remittances can be made through New York Correspondents, payable on shipment.

HAND DRAWINGS AND PAMPHLETS

Furnished on Application.