The first steps for the organization of this church were taken in 1860, when Dr. Cheney's congregation established a Mission interest in the Nonantum School-house on Third Street, near Bryant. The Sunday School was under the superintendence of H. H. Heath. After several changes, a lot was purchased on Fifth Street, corner of Jessie, and a church erected and organized December 22d, 1862, where the congregation worshipped until the spring of 1869, when the present commodious and elegant edifice was completed. Rev. H. A. Sawtelle was the first Pastor, who continued to officiate until October, 1866, when he retired from his pastoral charge and established the Union Square Baptist Church. The Rev. C. R. Hendrickson, for several years Pastor at Stockton, was called by the congregation to fill the vacancy, and he entered upon his duties on the first of January, 1867, the Rev. O. W. Briggs officiating during the time the congregation was without a regular Pastor. The church is now in a flourishing condition, with a membership of one hundred and sixty. Services are held each Sabbath at eleven o'clock A. M., and half past seven o'clock P. M. Prayer meetings on Wednesday evening.
