

MAY 21. Capt. C. Godfrey commits suicide.
 MAY 22. A large number of Chinamen engage in a riot at the Joss House, during which several of them are severely injured.
 MAY 24. Bayard Taylor arrives.
 MAY 25. The corner stone of the new U. S. Branch Mint is laid, with Masonic ceremonies.
 MAY 23. W. M. Zabriske and H. O. Gough, prominent citizens, die.
 MAY 29. Fire at 52 Everett Street, caused by explosion of a kerosene lamp.
 MAY 30. Memorial day celebrated by decorating the graves of deceased comrades....Hyltou, editor of the Mazonia, shot by W. G. Lansing.
 MAY 31. Street rencontre between A. P. Dudley and son, and Ed. Ingham, during which several wounds are inflicted.
 JUNE 1. Arrival of the Boston excursion party....The Mercantile Library Lottery office is opened for sale of tickets....Ed. Ingham fires two shots at Dudley on Montgomery Street.
 JUNE 2. Seventy-five Chinamen leave for North Adams, Mass., to make shoes.
 JUNE 5. British ship William Wilson is seized by the U. S. Marshal, whose authority is resisted, and the ship goes to sea.
 JUNE 6. Revenue cutter Wyanda goes in pursuit of the William Wilson.
 JUNE 7. The question of granting a subsidy to the Southern Pacific Railroad is decided adversely by the people.
 JUNE 8. Grand Grove Ancient Order of Druids in session.
 JUNE 9. Peter McLaughlin shot by John Carter, on Montgomery Street.
 JUNE 10. Samples of tea on exhibition, grown in El Dorado County.
 JUNE 12. James H. Cutter, a useful and prominent citizen, dies.
 JUNE 14. John A. Stanly appointed County Judge, vice Lake resigned....The sale of tickets for the Mercantile Library Gift Concert enjoined.
 JUNE 16. Daniel Ross commits suicide.
 JUNE 18. Billiard match for the championship of the Pacific Coast between Little and McCleery, is won by the former.
 JUNE 19. The body of Louis Seligman found in San Mateo County; money and papers to the value of $10,000, and also bottles of drugs, were found on his person....College building belonging to Mission Dolores destroyed by fire; loss $5,000....Victor Chaigneau, a pioneer, dies.
 JUNE 22. H. Henry is thrown from his horse, at the Mission, and killed....Bloody affray at the San Francisco Hospital, between William Troy and Henry Pragne.
 JUNE 23. Squatter difficulties at the Potrero.... Opposition ferry to Oakland reduce the fare to ten cents.
 JUNE 27. Three frame buildings on Tyler Street burned; loss $5,000....D. W. Martindell seriously hurt by a runaway horse.
 JULY 2. Walter Walsh thrown from a buggy and killed....F. Alexander accidentally killed on Market Street....F. N. Neval exonerated of the murder of Miss Carrie Diamond....Weather excessively warm.
 JULY 3. A fire at 205 Third Street; slight damage.
 JULY 4. Anniversary of American independence is celebrated by a military parade, and appropriate exercises at the Metropolitan Theater....Edward Meyers is killed by George Connor.
 JULY 5. The last Mexican flag flying in this city in 1846, presented to the Pioneers.
 JULY 7. The last Pullman Hotel train leaves today.
 JULY 8. Major G. M. Wright dies....Great anti-Chinese meeting at Platt's Hall....Twelve hundred Chinese leave to labor in Georgia.

JULY 9. Explosion at the Giant Powder Works, killing the superintendent, John Harry, and injuring two Chinamen....F. W. Marriott, editor of the News Letter, assaulted by John Stratman.
 JULY 10. The body of J. H. Von Straaten found in San Antonio Creek.
 JULY 11. Major-General John M. Schofield, Commander of the Division of the Pacific, arrives.
 JULY 12. Two Chinamen are arrested for counterfeiting bills on the Bank of India.
 JULY 13. Lieutenant-Colonel John W. Winters dies from an injury received on the 4th of July.... Hall of the Order B'nai B'rith on Post street is dedicated....F. W. Voll found guilty of manslaughter for killing Michael Walsh.
 JULY 15. News received of a declaration of war by France against Prussia.
 JULY 16. Joseph Emeric, a French resident, offers $500 reward to the capturer of the first Prussian flag.
 JULY 17. Imposing display at the funeral of Lieutenant-Colonel John W. Winters.
 JULY 18. Enthusiastic meeting of Frenchmen to aid their countrymen in their war with Prussia.... Fire on Jessie street; loss $6,000.
 JULY 19. Mass meeting of Germans to aid their countrymen in their war with France.
 JULY 22. Rev. A. C. Eiden severely injured by being thrown from a buggy.
 JULY 25. Cricket match between the officers of H. B. M. frigate Zealous and the California Eleven; won by the latter.
 JULY 26. John Riordan is killed by falling from a ladder.
 JULY 29. An excursion party of agricultural Editors arrives from the East.
 JULY 30. James Dobson is killed by John Tyler on Montgomery Street.
 JULY 31. The Jesuits celebrate the 330th anniversary of St. Ignatius Loyola, the founder of the Order.
 AUGUST 1. The printers strike for higher wages.
 AUG. 2. F. L. A. Pioche presents the State University with a valuable cabinet of minerals.
 AUG. 3. The Grand Jury decline to interfere with the Mercantile Library Lottery....D. W. C. Rice, former President of the California Pacific Railroad, dies.
 AUG. 6. Annual regatta of the S. F. Yacht Club.... Charles Quinn, the murderer of Maggie Ryan, found guilty.
 AUG. 7. Intense excitement over the war news from Europe.
 AUG. 9. Shooting affray between John O'Connell and Michael Mulcahy on Kearny Street.... John Stratman is found guilty of libel on J. C. Duncan.... Admiral John F. Winslow arrives.
 AUG. 11. U. S. Branch Mint damaged $6,000 by fire.... Charles Quinn sentenced to the State Prison for life.
 AUG. 12. Large subscriptions made by the French and German residents to their countrymen in arms.... The Eureka Typographical Union pronounces the recent printers' strike a failure.
 AUG. 13. John Stratman is sentenced to six months imprisonment for a libel on J. C. Duncan.
 AUG. 15. News received of the death of Admiral Farragut, U. S. N.; universal respect paid to his memory.
 AUG. 16.—Henry Durant elected President of the State University.
 AUG. 19. H. A. Cobb commissioned Major-General of State Militia.
 AUG. 23. Great rejoicing by both German and French over the war.
 AUG. 24. Hon. Wm. H. Seward arrives, en route around the world.... Mr. Jacks severely injured by a stationary wash basin at the Russ House.
 AUG. 25. F. W. Horn commits suicide.