

in the said city and county: First—Petit larceny, receiving stolen goods when the amount involved does not exceed fifty dollars. Second.—Assault and battery, not charged to have been committed upon a public officer in the discharge of his duties, or with intent to kill. Third—Breaches of the peace, riots, affrays, committing wilful injury to property, and all misdemeanors punishable by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Fourth—Said Court or Judge shall have jurisdiction of proceedings for security to keep the peace, and also, throughout said city and county, the same powers and jurisdiction in other criminal actions, cases and proceedings as are now or hereafter may be conferred by law upon Justices of the Peace or Justices' Courts. The Justices of the Peace within the limits of the city and county of San Francisco shall not have power to try and decide any cases of the classes mentioned in this section. [Amendment, February 13, 1872.]

SEC. 2. (Amendatory Act). The said Judge may punish contempts in the same manner and to the same extent as District Judges, and the laws concerning contempts applicable to District Courts and Judges shall be applicable to the said Police Court and Judge. [Amendment, February 13, 1872.]

SEC. 3. The Judge of said Court shall also have power to hear cases for examination, and may commit and hold the offender to bail for trial in the proper Court; and may try, condemn or acquit, and carry his judgment into execution, as the case may require according to law; and shall have power to issue warrants of arrests, subpoenas, and all other process necessary to the full and proper exercise of his power, and jurisdiction. All fines imposed by the Police Judge, not exceeding twenty dollars, exclusive of costs, shall be final and without appeal.

SUPPLEMENTAL IV. An Act respecting the Police Court of the City and County of San Francisco.—Approved, December 9, 1865.

SECTION. 1. Any Justice of the Peace of the City and County of San Francisco, who may be designated in writing by the Mayor or President of the Board of Supervisors, for the purpose, shall have power to preside in and hold the Police Judge's Court of said city and county, in case of the temporary absence of the Police Judge, or his inability to act from any cause; and during such temporary absence or disability, the Justice so designated shall act as Police Judge and shall have and exercise all the powers, jurisdiction, and authority, which are or may be by law conferred upon such Court or Judge.

SEC. 2. In case of a vacancy in the office of Police Judge, the Board of Supervisors of said city and county shall have power to appoint some suitable person, who is a resident and legal voter thereof, to fill the vacancy, who shall take the constitutional oath of office and enter upon his duties immediately. The person so appointed shall hold office until a Police Judge shall be elected at the next judicial election, and qualified according to law.

SUPPLEMENTAL V.—An Act to establish Police Regulations for the Harbor of the City and County of San Francisco, etc.—Approved April 4, 1864.

SECTION. 1. No person shall board or attempt to board any vessel arriving in the harbor of the City and County of San Francisco before said vessel has been made fast to the wharf, without obtaining leave from the Master or person having charge of said vessel, or permission, in writing, from the owner or owners, or the agent thereof, or having boarded such vessel, shall refuse or neglect to leave the same upon request of the Master or other person in charge thereof, under the penalty prescribed in the next succeeding section of this Act.

SEC. 2. Any person violating section one of this Act shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor; and upon conviction thereof before the Police Judge's Court of said city and county, shall be punished for each offense by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the County Jail of the City and County of San Francisco for a term not exceeding fifty days, or both, in the discretion of the Judge of the said Police Judge's Court, which Court shall have jurisdiction in such cases.

SEC. 3. The provisions of the last two foregoing sections shall not apply to any Pilot or public officer visiting a vessel, in discharge of his duty.

SEC. 4. No person shall entice or persuade, nor attempt to entice or persuade, any member of the crew of any vessel arriving in said harbor, or of any vessel in said harbor, to leave or desert said vessel before the expiration of his term of service in such vessel. Any person guilty of so doing shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to the penalty prescribed in section two of this Act.

SEC. 5. No person shall knowingly and willfully persuade or aid any person who shall have shipped on any vessel for a voyage from said port, and received any advanced wages therefor, to desert or willfully neglect to proceed on such voyage. Any person guilty of so doing shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before the Police Judge's Court of said city and county, shall be punished for each offense by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or imprisoned in the County Jail of the City and County of San Francisco for a term
