payable out of [the] School Fund,* for all street work on the water front of said city and county, not by law assessable upon private property; for all work authorized by the said Board upon the recommendation of the Superintendent of Streets and Highways, as immediately essential for the safety of life, limb, or property, or necessary for public health, or which can not be by law assessed upon private property, and for such other objects relating to streets and highways, as shall be directed by law to be paid therefrom. All moneys received from licenses on vehicles, from the income from street railroads, from fines and penalties for violation of any law or ordinance regulating vehicles on the public streets, shall be paid into the Street Department Fund.—[Amendment March 26, 1866.]

SEC. 72. The said Board of Supervisors shall also constitute a Board of Equalization for said city and county, and as such shall have the powers conferred by the general laws regulating the assessment and collection of taxes, when not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act. Appointments of officers or public agents required by existing statutes, not repealed by this Act, to be made on the nomination of the Mayor and confirmation by the Common Council of the City of San Francisco, shall, after this Act takes effect, be made in like manner on the nomination of the President of the Board of Supervisors, and confirmation by said Board.

SEC. 73. It shall be the duty of the Auditor, the Superintendent of Common Schools, the Superintendent of Public Streets and Highways, Chief of Police and Chief Engineer of the Fire Department of said city and county, to report to the Board of Supervisors on the first Monday in February of each year, the condition of their respective departments, embracing all their operations and expenditures during the preceding year, and recommending such improvements in them as they may deem necessary. The Auditor shall also present to the Board of Supervisors at each quarterly session and must also publish the same, a statement of the exact condition of the finances of said city and county, which must show the receipts into and disbursements made from the treasury during the preceding quarter, the amount of money on hand and the amount of audited demands outstanding. Immediately after the first Monday in February, the Board of Supervisors shall make up and publish an abstract from these several reports and other sources, of the operations, expenditures, and conditions of all departments of government of said city and county.

SEC. 74. The Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco shall have power,† by regulation or order [Amendment May 18, 1861]:

First—To regulate the Police and Police force of said city and county, and prescribe their powers and duties.—[Amendment April 25, 1863.]

Second—To provide for the security, custody, and administration of all property of said city and county [inapplicable to the property of the School Department, Act April 26, 1858] without any power to sell or encumber the same, or lease any part thereof, for more than three years, except, however, that such personal property belonging to the fire, street, or other departments, as they deem unsuited to the uses and purposes for which the same was designed, or so much worn or dilapidated as not to be worth repairing, may be sold or exchanged by order or resolution.

Third—To authorize and direct the summary abatement of nuisances; to make all regulations which may be necessary or expedient for the preservation of the public health and the prevention of contagious diseases; to provide by regulation for the prevention and summary removal of all nuisances and obstructions in the streets, alleys, highways, and public grounds of said city and county; and to prevent or regulate the running at large of dogs, and to authorize the destruction of the same when at large contrary to ordinance.—[Amendment April 25, 1863.]

Fourth—To provide for cases omitted in this Act, and in conformity with the principles adopted in it for opening, altering, extending, constructing, repairing, or otherwise improving of public streets and highways,‡ at the expense of the property benefited thereby, without any

* Expense of improvements in front of school lots payable from same fund as other street work.—[Act March 30, 1863.]

† In addition to the powers herein enumerated, the Legislature of the State (Session 1873-74), passed the following:

- I. To Provide for Deficiencies in the General Fund.—January 21, 1874.
- II. To Pay Architect and Superintendent of Second Street Bridge.—February 15, 1874.
- III. To Authorize the Closing of Certain Streets (in Agricultural Park Track).—February 28, 1874.
- IV. To Establish and Maintain a Training Snip or Ships in the City and County of San Francisco. [Authorizes the Board of Supervisors to procure a suitable Training Ship, or Ships, to instruct boys in seamanship and mechanical trades, and to accept the transfer of any vessels from the United States Government, to be used for that purpose, with the services of any officers and men which said Government may detail for service on board of such vessels. The said Board is authorized to remove from the Industrial School any boys they may select and place them on said Training Ships, and any boy heretofore committed to the Industrial School may have the judgment of the Court modified so as to change the confinement from the said School to the Training Ship. The said Board is also authorized to transfer any boy from the Training Ship to any naval vessel or merchant ship of the United States for the remainder of the term for which said boy has been sentenced, or for a shorter period, in the discretion of the Board. A sum not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars is appropriated to carry out the provisions of this Act.]—March 19, 1874.
- V. To Pay the Salaries of each of the Commissioners for the Opening of Montgomery Avenue, and the Attorney and Secretary of the Board.—March 23, 1874.
- VI. To Pay Damages to Owners of Property (Second Street Cut).—March 28, 1874.
- VII. For the Relief of Joseph Leggett.—March 30, 1874.
