BAPTIST.

First Baptist Church.

Location, north side of Washington Street, between Stockton and Dupont. Rev. E. E. HURLBERT, Pastor; residence, 224 Post Street.

This church was organized in June, 1849, under the labors of its first Pastor, Rev. O. C. Wheeler. The church lot was purchased in the spring of that year for the sum of $10,000. The first house of worship was dedicated in August, 1849, and was the first Protestant house of worship erected in California. Mr. Wheeler's pastorate ended in November, 1850. He was succeeded by the Rev. E. Brierly in May, 1852, who officiated until May, 1858. In July, 1859, Rev. D. B. Cheney was called to the pastorate, and continued in charge until 1867, when he was forced to resign on account of ill-health. After his resignation, Rev. C. A. Buckbee officiated as pastorate supply until the arrival of Rev. J. B. Thomas, February, 1868, who also was compelled by ill-health to resign. The Rev. A. R. Medbury took charge in November, 1870, and officiated until June 1, 1872. In the summer of 1853, the wooden building was removed, and the basement of the present edifice was erected at a cost of $13,000. In this the congregation worshipped until September, 1857, when it dedicated its newly-finished building which it had completed, for the sum of $16,000, including upholstery.

Number of communicants, two hundred and ninety-two. The Sabbath School has an average attendance of about two hundred and fifty. The library contains about nineteen hundred volumes.

Metropolitan Baptist Church.

Location, north side of Post Street, between Hyde and Larkin. Rev. ISAAC S. KALLOCH, Pastor.

The Tabernacle Baptist Church (now Metropolitan) was organized November 23, 1865, with forty-five members, and duly recognized by a Council of Baptist churches December 12, 1865. Its church edifice was dedicated August 20, 1865. It is of plain exterior, but very attractive within, having a seating capacity for three hundred and fifty persons. On the call of its present Pastor, it changed its original name of The Tabernacle, and adopted instead that of The Metropolitan Baptist Church, March 3, 1875. At this time it invited the Columbia Square Baptist Church, worshipping on Rusk Street, to unite with it under the pastorate of Mr. Kalloch. This invitation was accepted, and the consolidated body commenced services April 1, 1875, as one people. The first steps for the organization of the Columbia Square Baptist Church were taken in 1860, when Dr. Cheney's congregation established a Mission interest in the Nonantum School House on Third Street, near Bryant. The Sunday School was under the superintendence of H. H. Heath. After several changes, a lot was purchased on Fifth Street, corner of Jessie, and a church erected and organized December 22, 1862, where the congregation worshipped until the spring of 1869, when the present commodious and elegant edifice was completed. Rev. H. A. Sawtelle was the first Pastor, who continued to officiate until October, 1866, when he retired from his pastoral charge and established the Union Square Baptist Church. Rev. C. R. Hendrickson, for several years Pastor at Stockton, was called by the congregation to fill the vacancy. He entered upon his duties on the first of January, 1867, and resigned June 15, 1870. The Rev. D. S. Watson, of Pittsfield, Mass., was unanimously called by the church to the pastorate January, 1871, and continued in charge until his decease, December 27, 1872, since which time there has been no permanent Pastor. Neither house of worship, hitherto occupied by these churches is sufficiently large to accommodate the increased attendance, and a larger edifice in a suitable location is contemplated. The Advisory Committee, under the reorganization, consists of the Deacons and Trustees of the church, and its Pastor, together with the Trustees and Deacons of the Columbia Square Church, at the date of its union with this body.

Services on Sundays at eleven o'clock A.M., and half past seven o'clock P.M. Prayer Meetings on Wednesdays at half past seven o'clock. Sabbath School numbers one hundred and fifty, with five hundred volumes in the library. Meets at half past twelve o'clock P.M.
