

June 12. Edward Murphy attempts suicide.
 June 13. Albert Peterson is shot by Thomas Winship.... The Calaveras Reunion holds their second Annual Picnic at Badger's Park.
 June 14. Steamer Prince Alfred strikes on Duxbury Reef and goes ashore at Tennessee Cove, a total loss.
 June 15. Petra Patio killed by a stone rolled down Telegraph Hill.... Dr. Robert J. Richardson assaulted by Thomas Reid with a sand bag.... George Easton, a stove-dore, dies from injuries sustained by a fall.
 June 16. James B. McElwain, a well-known broker, dies.... Charles De Young, of the San Francisco Chronicle, has an affray with B. F. Naphaly, during which a boy is shot in the leg.
 June 20. Grand exhibition of horses at Agricultural Park for the benefit of the Louisiana sufferers.... Mary O'Neil is run over by a truck and killed.
 June 21. The fishing boat Alessandro capsizes in the bay and two of the occupants drowned.
 June 22. The fair in aid of the Louisiana sufferers closes; the total receipts about $20,000.
 June 23. Walter W. Stone commits suicide.
 June 25. Monster Sabbath School Picnic at Woodward's Gardens, ten thousand children on the grounds.
 June 29. William L. Hoover, of Gilroy, commits suicide at the Occidental Hotel.
 July 1. Mrs. A. C. Keyt and child are thrown from a buggy and severely injured.
 July 2. Charles C. Lindsay commits suicide.
 July 4. Independence Day is celebrated by a military and civic procession, and a regatta by the Master Mariners' Association.
 July 5. Gurin Maynard, of San Mateo, is dashed against a tree by his horse and killed.... Rev. Dr. Julius Eckman, pioneer Jewish minister and editor, dies after a short attack of paralysis.
 July 7. A banquet and torchlight procession by the Society of Pioneers in honor of James Lick.
 July 10. Allyn & White's, Schultz & Von Bergen's, and R. G. Gelien's stores destroyed by fire. Loss $60,000.
 July 11. The steamer Vasco de Gama arrives from Yokohama in sixteen days.... Jacob Jacobson dies suddenly while being taken to the city prison.
 July 12. The buildings of the Morocco Manufacturing Co. and George Griffin's tannery, entirely destroyed by fire, and adjoining buildings damaged. Total loss, $20,000.... William Schubert dies suddenly in his chair at the Hansa Hotel.
 July 18. Capt. Camman drops dead.
 July 19. H. G. Horner, an esteemed citizen and Secretary of the Commercial Insurance Company, is drowned.
 July 23. Suit commenced against William M. Lent to recover $20,000 on account of the diamond fraud.
 July 24. William B. Bourn commits suicide.
 July 25. The pas engers by the Pharsalla, in 1849, celebrate the anniversary of their arrival by a banquet.... Russel Card commits suicide.
 July 26. Balloon race from Woodward's Gardens.
 July 27. Expeditions of observance of the Transit of Venus sad on the Alaska.... Charles L. Tippet, a noted theatrical manager, dies.
 July 29. James Ramsey is killed by a mob at Montgomery Queen's Circus.... W. Scott commits suicide.
 July 30. Adolph Strecker, a prominent marksman, leaves overland to attend the shooting festival at Baltimore.... Patrick McCann dies from the effects of a kick.
 July 31. Picnic at Woodward's Gardens of Chinese Sunday scholars.... Edward Coulter drops dead.... Mechanics' Institute Pavilion formally accepted by the Board of Managers.
 August 4. J. W. Stow, an esteemed citizen and treasurer of the San Francisco Benevolent Association, and president of the Gilroy Consolidated Tobacco Co., dies, after a lingering illness.... Margaret Bishop dies at the County Hospital under circumstances of a suspicious nature.
 August 5. Christopher Gitcovich is discovered dead in his room with a dirk buried deep in the skull.... Chas. Edwards, a notorious ruffian, escapes on the Oakland boat from Sheriff Morse, of Alameda County.... Rudolph Hirsch jumps through a second-story window and dies from the injuries received.
 August 6. Michael Reese sues the California Pacific Railroad for $7,000,000.... William McGee, from Virginia City, dies suddenly at the city prison.
 August 11. William Alexander Lightfoot, of the tug Joseph Raymond, found drowned near the Ocean Side House.
 August 13. Mrs. A. B. Reed dies from the effect of a cut across the arm severing the arteries, inflicted by herself.

August 15. John West found dead in his bed.
 August 17. James Lick records a new deed to protect the interests of the Academy of Sciences and California Pioneers.... Albert Calcut commits suicide.... John A. McGlynn, superintendent of the Central Railroad, an old and esteemed citizen, dies, after a short illness.
 August 18. Ninth Industrial Exhibition of the Mechanics' Institute is opened to the public with considerable ceremony and display.
 August 24. John White disembowels himself with a razor, then jumps out of the window, and dies three hours after.
 August 25. Investigation into the License Collector's office is commenced.
 August 29. Professor George Davidson and party leave for Nagasaki to observe the Transit of Venus.
 August 30. Eureka Hair Manufactory is destroyed by fire. Loss $20,000.... C. D. Anderson commits suicide.
 September 2. U. S. ship Tuscara arrives from a sounding expedition.
 Sept. 3. Gen. John E. Addison commits suicide from fear of another attack of gout.
 Sept. 4. A. Strecker, the king shot of America, returns and is received with military honors.
 Sept. 6. A man, named Fred. Clark, fatally stabbed.
 Sept. 9. The Pioneers celebrate the Quarter Centennial by military display and exercises at Woodward's Gardens, etc.
 Sept. 10. George Yelverton dies from the effects of wounds received while defending himself from attack.... The Pioneers take an excursion round the bay in the steamer Great Republic.
 Sept. 13. A boy, named David Cellar, run over by a street car, and killed.
 Sept. 15. Thomas Brown, at one time a salesman with Treadwell & Co., commits suicide.
 Sept. 16. The Sixty-fourth Anniversary of the Independence of Mexico celebrated at Union Hall.... Francisco Proporata makes an unsuccessful attempt to commit suicide.
 Sept. 17. Herman Apel commits suicide.
 Sept. 20. Charles Wiggins accidentally shoots himself.
 Sept. 21. George Keller commits suicide.... The observance of the Day of Atonement is religiously kept by all the Israelites.
 Sept. 26. E. W. Vogelsdorff, a broker, commits suicide at the Grand Central Hotel, Oakland.... An explosion occurs at the Bay View Distillery, attended with fatal injuries to one of the workmen.
 Sept. 27. During a quarrel between two hoodlums at the corner of Third and Everett streets, John Murphy shoots John Caldwell fatally.... Samuel F. Blasdell, an old pioneer, commits suicide.
 Sept. 28. Three deputy assessors, Newton Morgan, A. Eckstein, and Joseph Casey, arrested for extensive poll-tax forgeries.
 Sept. 29. Louis Laurico attempts to gain possession of $500 from Angelina Martinez, and in her resistance he stabs her seven times.
 Sept. 30. Margaret O'Connor receives fatal injuries by being thrown off a balcony by Thomas Nolan.... The body of John L. Stephens, the missionary, arrives from Mexico, for interment in the city.
 October 1. Sarah R. Yoakum makes an unsuccessful attempt to assassinate Dr. C. F. Buckley.... Philip Barnes attempts suicide; wound fatal.
 Oct. 3. The Ninth Industrial Exhibition closes.
 Oct. 4. An aged woman named Annie Rice, found dead in her room in an advanced state of decomposition.... The Bohemian Club gives a banquet to Randolph Rogers, the renowned American Sculptor.
 Oct. 6. Smith S. Studley is very badly crushed by a car of the Central Line.
 Oct. 7. John Nassar commits suicide by hanging himself.
 Oct. 8. John M. Eckfeldt, melter and refiner, U. S. Mint, commits suicide at his residence at Oakland.
 Oct. 10. Thomas B. Masey commits suicide.... Claus F. Ehlers commits suicide in Oakland, by shooting himself.
 Oct. 11. James Orem dropped dead while on duty at Woodward's Gardens.
 Oct. 12. An old man named Murray is found dead.... A. L. Butenop found dead in his room.
 Oct. 13. Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Free Masons commences.... Joseph Gruet Buisley dies from the effects of a balloon accident.