

Maguire's New Theatre

South side Bush Street, between Montgomery and Kearny.

THOMAS MAGUIRE, . . . PROPRIETOR.

THIS NEW AND ELEGANT TEMPLE OF AMUSEMENT,

Recently erected, is now open for the entertainment of the Patrons of the Legitimate Drama.

The auditorium is most appropriately beautified and embellished, and the interior is provided with every convenience for the comfort of visitors, so as to render this Theatre one of the most Attractive and Commodious Houses of Amusement in the Union.

Arrangements have been entered into with several of the Most Distinguished Members of the Profession!

OF THE ATLANTIC STATES AND EUROPE,

Who will appear in Rapid Succession, Sustained by a Talented and Efficient Stock Company.

OPEN EVERY EVENING.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON.

Prices of Admission,

Dress Circle, - - -	$ 1 00
Parquette, - - -	50
Private Boxes, - -	10 00