KNIGHTS COMMANDERS OF THE SUN.—This Order was instituted October 17, 1875, and is now established in seventeen States and Territories of the Union, and also in Canada and Nova Scotia, and is chiefly composed of members of other secret benevolent societies. Its organization is divided into three divisions, viz: The National and State, Grand, and Subordinate Commanderies. As in Knight Templar, or Scottish Rite Freemasonry, the officers bear high sounding titles of rank created in the feudal ages, during the Crusades. This Order, for its organization of government and rank, adopts that of the official corps of the United States Army, and for its regalia adopts the national colors of the country in which it is organized. Its objects are to disseminate light, and intellectual and moral improvement. It is semi-military in its government, benevolent and fraternal in its character, and provides for the widows and orphans of its deceased members.

There are in California one State Grand and three Subordinate Commanderies, two of which are in this city.

NATIONAL GRAND COMMANDERY.—Edwin A. Sherman, General Grand Commander-in-chief; office 232 Sutter, room 6.
