

Convention passes off quietly, the total vote polled being 27,113. With six tickets in the field, the Kearny wing, Workingmen, elects its local ticket by an average majority over the Non-Partisans of 5,355.

June 21. Edward Hanrahan kills both his wife and cousin, Michael Sheehan, with an axe.

June 24. Pierce Neagle shoots Bridget T. Hardnett, and then suicides. . . The depositors and members of the Old Fellows' Savings Bank reorganize with a capital stock of $250,000.

June 25. A convention of proprietors and editors of the Press of the State meets at Palace Hotel, and organize The California Press Association.

June 26. William Herbold suicides.

June 27. J. W. Batchelder and Goldfried Henninger arrested for trafficking in police appointments. . . Thomas Downing suicides.

June 28. Augustus Hahn suicides.

June 29. Hiram B. Cook and John P. Bell arrested for defalcation.

July 1. R. M. Clarks, Clerk City Criminal Court, arrested for embezzlement. . . Nearly all the principal city and county offices are removed to the new City Hall.

July 2. Capt. C. A. Morrell arrested for complicity in opium smuggling.

July 3. Chief Nathez, of the Piute Indians, arrives. July 4. The day is appropriately celebrated with a procession, and literary exercises at Metropolitan Temple. . . The Fire Department responds to twenty-six different alarms; damages nominal. . . The Pacific Yacht Club dedicate their new Club House and grounds at New Sausalito. . . The San Francisco Yacht Club visit Vallejo and Napa.

July 5. Luis Vargas suicides. . . Belt factory, corner Alabama and Twenty-first streets, destroyed by fire; loss, $5,000.

July 8. The Jesuit Fathers commence work for their new church and college buildings, on Van Ness Avenue.

July 9. The ship Western Shore wrecked on Duxbury Reef; loss, $90,000.

July 10. Dr. Kimball Favor arrested for abortion.

July 11. Isaac Friedlander, a prominent merchant, dies. . . John H. Euby suicides. . . Tom Wallace, a noted burglar, is brought back to the city.

July 12. Isaac W. Smith appointed Engineer of the Board of Harbor Commissioners.

July 13. Sash and blind factory of B. & J. S. Doe destroyed by fire; loss, $35,000.

July 16. William Oaks dies from a fractured skull. . . Honorah Lynch dies from a stab inflicted by her husband.

July 20. Thomas N. Starr suicides by drowning.

July 21. Dennis Kearney leaves for Massachusetts.

July 23. The Public Kindergarten Society of San Francisco organize.

July 24. John Heidemann suicides.

July 25. Gold is discovered in the Ocean Beach diggings.

July 26. The City of Tokio arrives with Chinese embassy.

July 28. Immense crowds visit the Ocean Beach gold mines.

July 31. William E. Carr, on trial for complicity in fraudulent navy certificates, acquitted.

August 1. Henry Droge murders his wife and suicides. Aug. 3. A telegram announces the death of Michael Reese in Germany. . . San Francisco Yacht Club holds its annual regatta.

Aug. 4. John B. Warner shoots and kills William J. Wilson.

Aug. 8. The Hastings Law College inaugurated.

Aug. 9. George Smith suicides.

Aug. 11. Henry J. Montague, distinguished society actor, dies.

Aug. 12. Batchelder and Henninger, the police brokers, sentenced to County Jail, the first for one year, the other for six months.

Aug. 12. The Thirteenth Mechanics' Fair opens with literary exercises at Metropolitan Temple. . . Thomas Thompson suicides.

Aug. 15. Registrar Kaplan publishes tables of number and nativity of voters in city; total, 37,915, of which 16,313 are foreign born. . . Louis Colen suicides.

Aug. 16. Einstein Bros., boot and shoe manufacturers, fail for $800,000.

Aug. 18. Ferd. T. Brewster killed at South Pacific Coast R. R. landing, Alameda.

Aug. 19. A meeting of clergymen of all denominations held to secure a Sunday observance clause in the Constitution.

Aug. 20. P. J. Boardman suicides. . . N. R. Middleton fatally injured by street car horses.

Aug. 21. San Francisco's first installment, $1,000, Yellow Fever Relief Fund, is forwarded by the Israelites of the city. . . As a result of the examination by the bank Commissioners, the Masonic Savings and Loan Society closes its doors.

Aug. 22. Henry Ward Beecher delivers first lecture. . . Judge Dwinelle decides Sate Deposit Co. responsible for Duncan's over-issue of stock.

Aug. 23. Sophia Wahr, aged 13, suicides by strychnine.

Aug. 14. John McGowan dies from stab inflicted by William Howard. . . Fire in Murphy, Grant & Co.'s store; damages, $40,000.

Aug. 26. William Baker shoots Adel Gray.

Aug. 27. A. H. Manson suicides when about to be arrested for the attempted murder of his wife. . . Joseph I. Fisher suicides.

Aug. 29. A shooting affray between ex-Supervisor M. J. Keely and his brother-in-law, John Russell. . . Citizens organize relief movement in aid of yellow fever sufferers.

September 1. John Russell dies of his wound. . . Jacob Kister accidentally shoots and kills Frank Heigle. . . Beecher preaches to an immense congregation in the Grand Opera House.

Sept. 2. Ex-Governor H. H. Haight dies.

Sept. 3. The Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Savings upon examination by Bank Commissioners, is ordered into liquidation.

Sept. 4. Postmaster-General Key and party arrive.

Sept. 7. Higinio de Cimia suicides.

Sept. 9. Golden Gate District Fair opens. . . Admission Day celebrated by literary exercises at Pacific Hall, and picnic at Woodward's Gardens.

Sept. 11. Alexander Anstin, ex-Tax Collector, suicides at San Mateo.

Sept. 12. General John C. Fremont, newly appointed Governor of Arizona, arrives. . . Samuel H. Huschman is charged with embezzery, and sentenced to ten days' jail and fine of $1,000.

Sept. 14. Hattie L. Russell suicides. . . Mechanics' Fair proper closes. Receipts, $41,125.55; expenses, $20,793.84.

Sept. 15. Mechanics' Fair continued to-day for yellow fever sufferers. Receipts, $1,511.50. . . Bishop Simpson preaches in Grand Opera House.

Sept. 16. Mrs. Hodgdon convicted of murder in second degree.

Sept. 17. Gustav Mahé, Director General French Bank, suicides. . . The California Pioneers give reception to General Fremont. . . The protested tax monies in the hands of the late collector, A. Austin, amounting to $233,233.53, are found to have been embezzled. . . Captain Albert G. Jones dies.

Sept. 18. The French Bank suspends business pending examination by the Bank Commissioners.

Sept. 19. Mary Ann Burns suicides by poison.

Sept. 22. Independent Order of B'nai B'rith lays corner-stone of their new Hall on Eddy street. . . Twenty-fifth anniversary Young Mens' Christian Association held in First Congregational Church.

Sept. 24. Gen. Fremont and party leaves for Arizona. . . State Teachers' Association meets.

Sept. 25. Large mass meeting of Germans at Horticultural Hall protests against any Sunday Law.

Sept. 26. Generals Sherman and McCook, U. S. A., arrive. . . Julius A. Keete suicides.

Sept. 30. Daniel Merkie, a hoodlum, aged 19, shot and killed by Edward A. Von Schmidt. . . Maule McNeal suicides. . . Supervisor Hill resigns.

October 1. J. H. Montgomery suicides. . . H. J. Widmer assaults Mr. Bierce.

Oct. 2. Gilbert L. Domm arrested for forgeries to amount of $5,750.

Oct. 4. Charles M. Martin dies from having been thrown from a balcony.

Oct. 7. Judge Dwinelle declares the French Bank insolvent, and appoints F. F. Low receiver.

Oct. 9. David D. Colton, Financial Director of the C. P. R. R. Co., and Vice President of the S. P. R. R. Co., dies.

Oct. 14. The first heavy rain of the season.

Oct. 16. Julius Knopf suicides.

Oct. 17. Andrew Spohr sentenced for life for wife murder.

HUTCHINSON & MANN, General Insurance Agents, 322 and 324 California St., and 302 Sansome St.

BEAMISH'S Shirts Ready made and to Order;