Fire Patrol.

Established in May, 1875, by the Board of Fire Underwriters. It is conducted on the same principle as the one in successful operation in New York City. The apparatus consists of wagons carrying rubber covers, fire extinguishers, ladders, and other appliances for extinguishing fires, saving life, and protecting property from damage by water. The force consists of fourteen men including the Captain, who are on duty day and night. There are two stations, No. 1, located southwest corner of Stevenson and Ecker streets, and No. 2, north side of Grove, between Larkin and Polk streets. Telegraph wires extend from Station No. 1 to the office of the American District Telegraph Co., and also to the Palace and Grand Hotels.

Station No. 1.—Members.—Russell White, Captain; Charles H. Okell, Lieutenant; Scott Wycoff, C. H. Lewis, William F. Thomas, Charles M. Janes, William Smith, John A. Maier and Charles Albee, Privates.

Station No. 2.—Members.—John F. O. Comstock, Lieutenant; John Littlefield, Thomas Dornin, John H. Colen and William Brown, Privates.

FIRE MARSHAL.—John L. Durkee (appointed by the Board of Underwriters). Office, City Hall, third floor.
