BRITISH BENEVOLENT SOCIETY OF CALIFORNIA.—Rooms, 531 California street.

This society was organized in 1865 for the purpose of affording relief to sick and destitute members and persons who were subjects of Great Britain at the time of their birth, and of promoting the social and intellectual improvement of its members. Between twelve and thirteen hundred members have been admitted to membership, and there are now some two hundred and fifty paying members, including thirteen life members, on the rolls. In May, 1867, the association was completely reorganized and incorporated, and a constitution adopted, containing several admirable features, and, among others, provisions for free lectures, debates, and social concerts. From the time of its formation the affairs of the society have been carefully and judiciously managed, and its charity dispensed with prudent liberality. It has uniformly co-operated with the San Francisco Benevolent Association, St. Andrew's Society, and other societies, and through its agency their burden has been greatly lightened; many hundreds of sick and destitute men, women, and children effectively relieved, and a large number provided with employment. The relief given is, for the most part, temporary. The Board of Relief is in attendance daily from ten o'clock A.M. to one o'clock P.M. The regular meeting is held on the first Wednesday of each month, at seven and a half o'clock P.M.
